THE RECENT STORM.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE HERALD. Damage by the Storm at Sing Sing.
FOUGHERPER, N. Y., June 19, 1807,
8 o'Clock P. M.

A violent rain storm prevalled at Sing Sing all day fuesday, doing an immense amount of damage. The sulvert which crosses the track of the Hudson River Railroad at that place became so overflowed, in consening as usual.

An extensive such and blind factory and a number of houses and barns on the banks of the culvert were carried away, causing considerable loss.

The storm is said to have been the heaviest over known at that place.

River Railroads.

The heavy min storm of Tuesday interfered very sempuely with travel on the Eric and Hudson River Railously with travel on the Eric and Hudson River Railroads, and caused much damage to the laster route. Near Sing Sing a portion of the track was carried away trains due in this city at ten o'clook on Tuesday night and eleven o'clook posterday morning did not arrive here until noon yesterday. Last evening the trains were all in and travel was uninterrupted.

On the Eric road the trains were detained about five hours on Tuesday evening in consequence of the water having covered the track at Allendale. The road was not injured, and after the freshet substitute trains commenced running regularly.

About two o'clock yesterday morning the stream urning Mr. Huichinson's mill, near Trenton, N. J. swelled by the recent heavy rains, came down like a torrent, tearing off a corner of the gable in which the wheel was located, about nity yards of the White Horse Tornpike and the residence of Mr. Hutchinson's brother, whose household had barely time to effect a precipitate retreat in their night attire. The loss is estimated at from $6,000 to $8,000.

On Tuesday evening the lightning struck a house in familion township, N. J., shattering the chimney,

The recent heavy rains have presented the telegraph lines in all directions, and have wasted away the Winowns and St. Peters Railroad track and bridges. The telegraph lines are working, but very badly. The railroad trains will be delayed from three to four days.
